

RULES OF ORDER

The Holdenville Board of Education believes it can meet as a body and precede best with its deliberations in an atmosphere of free exchange of information and opinion unhampered by formal rules or order which are usually designed for the management of large groups or organizations. Hence the board shall not consider itself bound by the rules of any certain manual of parliamentary procedure except the regulations required by law.

The president of the board, or the person chairing the meeting, may discuss and have a vote on all matters coming before the board.
