

STUDENT CONDUCT

The Holdenville Board of Education believes that an important responsibility of any school system is to teach acceptable social conduct. We believe that such conduct may be taught by example and by providing appropriate incentives.

All students' behavior should be based on respect and consideration for the rights of others. The board also believes that reasonable standards of conduct should be established and that adherence to those standards be insisted upon. The board, therefore, directs the administration, to establish regulations of student conduct. Students shall receive annually, at the opening of school, a publication listing the rules and regulations to which they are subject. These rules shall be developed by the faculty and administration and approved by the board. Any restriction on student behavior must be concerned with speech or action which disrupts the work of the school or interferes with the rights of other students or staff.

Students have a responsibility to know and respect the rules and regulations of the school. Students have the further responsibility to behave in a manner appropriate to good citizenship everywhere.
