

LESSON PLANS

It is the belief of the Holdenville Board of Education that in order to progress their must be a plan. Teachers are expected to plan for each class period in order to make them effective. The building principals will develop a regulation concerning the format of lesson plans and arrangements for the review of plans by the principals.