

STUDENT HANDBOOKS

Each school site in the Holdenville School District will develop a set of guidelines and regulations for the students attending that particular site. These student handbooks will be approved each year by the Holdenville Board of Education. The student regulations outlined in the approved student handbooks for each site will be a sub-set of Official School Board Policies for the Holdenville School District.